AWPA NAVIGATION COMPONENT SCHOLARSHIP 2022

Sponsored by the Royal Australian Air Force

SCHOLARSHIP INFORMATION

The Australian Women Pilots' Association (AWPA), through the sponsorship of the Royal Australian Air Force (RAAF), is offering a training scholarship to a woman aged between 15 and 27 years who may wish to pursue an aviation career as a pilot.

Valued at $7,000, the scholarship is to assist with flight training costs associated with undertaking the Navigation component of a Private or Commercial Pilot Licence (Aeroplane).

The Australian Women Pilots' Association (AWPA) is a national representative body of women pilots. Its objectives are focused on promoting aviation and women pilots in career and recreational pursuits. AWPA acknowledges the support of the Royal Australian Air Force in enabling this scholarship. The Association encourages women to consider all aviation career opportunities available but notes that successful application for this scholarship does not in any way replace any recruiting eligibility requirements currently in place with the RAAF.

The Royal Australian Air Force. Established in 1921, the RAAF is the second-oldest air force in the world with a proud tradition of service – contributing to coalition operations, peacekeeping and humanitarian and disaster relief.

The deadline to submit your application is 31 January 2022

SCHOLARSHIP CRITERIA

Applicants will be considered for their aviation achievements, goals and plans for achieving those goals.

Note: An intention to pursue an aviation career with the RAAF is welcome, but not a requirement.

The scholarship applicant must:

- Have achieved her first solo flight (in a powered VH- registration fixed wing aircraft) before lodging an application.
 - Be a financial member of AWPA and retain membership for the period of the scholarship.
NOTE: If not already a member, a membership application must have been lodged with the membership secretary before you submit your scholarship application.
 - Be aged between 15 and 27 years.
NOTE: Where the applicant is less than 18 years of age, the application must be accompanied by a signed written consent from a parent or guardian.
 - Be able to comply with the Civil Aviation Safety Authority's requirements to obtain a private or commercial pilot licence.

Supporting Documentation Required:

All scholarship applications must include the following items:

- Your essay – requirements explained in application form.
- Copy of the last two pages of your pilot's logbook (both sides of the last two pages of your open log book) ensuring that the record of your first solo is included.
- Copy of CASA pilot licence if any held
- Copy of current CASA aviation Class 1 or 2 medical
- Signed and dated recent letter of recommendation detailing proficiency and aptitude for aviation from your HOO/CFI or flying instructor.
- Copies of relevant educational qualification(s).

SCHOLARSHIP CONDITIONS

1. The scholarship funds must be used for flight training only.
2. The scholarship funds of $7,000 will be awarded as follows:
 - Up to $7,000 on submission of itemised invoices for flying training related to the Navigation component of the recipient's private or commercial pilot licence.
 - The funds will be available for payment from the date of the announcement of the successful recipient on 2nd April 2022.
 - The funds must be used by 30 June 2023.
 - Additionally, any relevant training conducted after applications close but prior to announcement may be claimed against the scholarship funds – this effectively widens the term of the scholarship from 1 February 2022 to 30 June 2023.
3. The funds will not be available until the recipient has undertaken sufficient training to be able to commence her navigation exercises.
4. All applications will be judged at the complete discretion of the selection committee and no correspondence or discussion will be entered into after the scholarship recipient has been announced.
5. The successful applicant will be announced at the AWPA Conference Presentation function on Saturday 2nd April 2022 in Hobart, TAS.

SUBMISSION OF APPLICATIONS

Please note that incomplete applications will not be considered – a checklist is provided as part of the application form to help guard against this.

Applications must be submitted both electronically in PDF format and in hardcopy by post. Please do not bind the paper copy or put in any sort of presentation folder.

Note that the total file size of the electronic version must not exceed 5 MB. Any application exceeding 5 MB will be rejected.

The closing date for applications is 31 January 2022.

Late applications will not be accepted.
